

Enterprise/Application Architect

Job Description:

The selected individual will collaborate with AE's engineering/architecture team to design, implement and support AE's enterprise data warehouse and business intelligence solutions and program. They will report to the AE Information Technology Enterprise Applications manager and/or the BI supervisor. The responsibilities and tasks include development and administration of InfoSphere DataStorage ETL in support of AE's enterprises data warehouse and business intelligence program.

8 years Implementing and administering ETL tools.

5 years Infosphere DataStorage

5 years Data warehousing and business intelligence technologies

8 years Lead role in one or more data warehousing and business intelligence technology projects

8 years Oracle database technologies

N/A Bachelor's degree in Engineering or Computer field